

Studio Altius is inviting full-time student photographers to submit artwork for FRESH 2011, the 2nd annual photography show of some of the best work being created by St. Louis-area student photographers. The finalists are selected by a blind jury. The top pieces will be displayed in the FRESH 2011 show at Studio Altius during the month of July. Additionally, a photo-book will be made showing off the finalists plus several other standout images. This book will be available to purchase during the run of the show. The entry fee for this show is only $5, you may enter as many times in as many categories as you wish, however, you must submit a new entry fee for every piece you enter.

Finalists will have the opportunity to purchase these books for a discounted price, and some of the books may be awarded along with prizes, but no compensation will be given to artists for the use of these images. If you would prefer to have us exclude your images from this book, please make a note of this on your entry form.

Each image submitted must have a separate entry form and fee (while each image requires an additional entry fee, feel free to total your entry fees on one check). The person submitting the entry must also own the copyright of the image (although the image does not have to be registered). Entrants under 18 years of age must submit a release from a parent or guardian. Entries will be evaluated based on appeal, content, composition, photographic skill, and representation of the designated category. The decision of the judges is final.
